Marianne De Pierres

Creator/Writer

Marianne de Pierres has won awards for her science fiction and crime novels and had her work adapted for RPG and animation. Peacemaker is the result of Marianne's long term romance with Westerns, which started many years ago when her father gave her a copy of Light of the Western Stars by Zane Grey. It was only a matter of time before she wrote one herself.

Brigitte Sutherland

Artist

Born and raised in Australia, Brigitte Sutherland's award-winning comic art has featured in numerous publications across the world. After working as a graphic designer and 3D modeller in Sydney, she is now making comics and illustrating freelance in the U.K. She recently released her first creator-owned graphic novel, The Adventures of a Homunculus. Peacemaker allows Sutherland to share the beauty of the land she grew up in while indulging in high adventures with a sassy heroine!
